

Professional Women's Forum

Many busy women find it easy and rewarding to belong to Professional Women's Forum (PWF). The organization has very few committees, and all meetings and special projects are optional.

The regular luncheon meetings are held on the first Wednesday of each month at Copper Roux from 11:30 a.m. to approximately 1:00 p.m. unless there is a holiday on that date. Visitors are very welcome, and reservations are required. Visitors may attend three times in a fiscal year before joining (January – December).

Most meetings offer a speaker on an issue of community or professional concern. Other meetings focus on networking, which provides members the opportunity to discuss important topics with fellow members.

PWF sponsors additional activities during the year, which provide opportunities for personal and professional growth, networking, and fellowship. PWF's membership year runs from January to December. To join, complete this form and return it with your dues to the address on the form.

For information about upcoming meetings or to make a reservation, sign up through the e-blast on Eventbrite or contact Sandra at pwflex@gmail.com.
